

Our Journey to Finding The Gloucester 1682 & Beyond

Royal Misadventure on a 17th century English Warship

An Evening with Julian Barnwell co-discoverer of the historic wreck now seen as Norfolk's Mary Rose

WEDNESDAY 5 APRIL 2023, doors open 7pm
The Tithe Barn, Rectory Road, Horstead, NR12 7EP

In association with Colchester Inns and The Marlpit magazine

TICKETS £10 (including glass of wine)
from

The Recruiting Sergeant, Horstead
The Rising Sun, Coltishall or by contacting: compilation@themarlpit.com tel: 07722 491320

Early booking advised as numbers are limited

Reverse side: Gloucester strikes the Yarmouth Sand 1682, Keith Bacon, 2008, Private Collection

*This page top left: Julian (left) with brother Lincoln and the ship's bell; below left: wreck of Gloucester by Johan Dankerts (Royal Museums Greenwich); bottom left: the Barnwell brothers examine the wreck on the seabed;
below right: James, Duke of York, by Henri Gascar (Royal Museums Greenwich).*

